the al-quran is a muslim holy book which was compiled by the islamic prophet mohammed around the year 610 during his lifetime. the al-quran is divided into chapters of between a few words to a few hundred words. following the prophet mohammed's death in 632, muhammad ibn abdullah referred to it as 'the recitation of the law of allah.' it is the sole book of god, composed by the prophet and approved by allah, and was therefore preserved intact without the addition of any variation. the al quran is not to be confused with the qu'ran which was compiled by mohammad's followers and the ma or bible which is the jewish bible. some believe the qu'ran should be translated from the arabic while others believe it should be translated from the hebrew language. however, in the past, translations were made from the arabic to the greek, latin and other european languages in the middle ages. the translation was done by a monk from the palestinian city of jerusalem which has a reputation for having the holy land. because of its importance, several scholars have been formed to translate the al quran into other languages, including the burton spasihorn method, which is widely used in america. it is a method of translating that attempts to be as close to the arabic and then reciting the translation as is practical while at the same time remaining close to the meaning of the arabic. the al quran is certainly one of the greatest treasures of humanity. now that you have read the above paragraph, you must have curiosity about this greatest treasure that is the al quran. you can find the best collection of all kinds of high quality downloads of the al quran here. 5ec8ef588b
