I'm not even sure what to do about it. Can anyone point me in the right direction? Please help! A: I suggest you to do the following: remove name="tags" from your form_validation.ini remove name="tags" from the error control from Zend Form library A few years ago, a guest of ours served us up some fresh, homemade black bean soup in the American South. You know? With nay leafs and such. Just like home. This was in Nashville, when the year was 1999 and we all had laptops, but not smart phones, and not tablets. In other words, soup should be hot, served from a big pot, and with a spoon. I can't recall what we ordered, and I've never been back, but I would bet there are things different now. I'm not sure I'd want to order bean soup either. Served this good when I was young now tastes like a contemporary American invention. Don't get me wrong, I love my tubs of baked beans too, and they always play a big part in the South. It's just bean soup, you know? Beans and spices, and maybe a little cider. Something snapped inside me when I heard about "Bean Soup—Monopoly"—because I realized I can't get on board. They've been proliferating for far
