I've been able to do is relish in the memories of my mother-in-law and take a few pictures of the kids and the house. We've really started to come into our own, and I can see that. What's it like around here? It's a nice change of pace from the busyness of San Diego. You get the same rush with cars passing by, but it's more about "Oh, that is nice," "What is that," than "Oh, my God, look," "Oh, my God, it's so ugly." Our home isn't like that. It has the same personality that house I bought in San Diego. We have two trees in the front yard. There are bougainvilleas along the side of the house. There's a group of geese on the driveway 04aeff104c
