Additionally, based on the HyperMotion technology, FIFA 18 introduced the brand-new "Real Player Motion Technology." Based on the vast amount of data collected from more than 3,000 professional athletes playing high-intensity matches and matches played at the FIFA World Cup, the player animations in FIFA 18 react to each other in an extremely realistic way. In addition, FIFA 18 introduced new Facescan technology that enhances player expressions, facial animations, and facial features. We have prepared a comprehensive look at FIFA 22 gameplay which includes details about gameplay features, gameplay changes from FIFA 17, real-life stats of new players, player ratings and much more. Introduction FIFA 22 will bring back the classic core gameplay elements such as 3-on-3 matches, unlimited substitutions and no time limit. Additionally, FIFA 21 introduced the brand-new FIFA Ultimate Team mode, and with FIFA 22, fans will be able to buy and manage all their favourite players with FIFA Ultimate Team, which also includes the brand-new "All-Stars" mode. Among the list of new players, the "Best of the Rest" category is a new addition to the All-Stars Team, and features the top five players who did not make the cut to the All-Stars Team. We would like to welcome new players - The "Best of the Rest" will be included in FIFA 22. We're happy to announce that we are launching the all-new "Real Player Motion" engine with FIFA 22. The vast amount of data collected from professional athletes playing high-intensity matches and matches played at the FIFA World Cup is used to power the player animations in FIFA 18, and in FIFA 22, we will continue that success into the gameplay. We are sure you will enjoy playing in the world's first "hyperkinetic" game in high-intensity conditions. FIFA 21 introduced FIFA Ultimate Team to FIFA and this year, with FIFA 22, fans can enjoy playing in their own FUT. Adding a variety of new cards and coins - such as All-Stars, Legends, the Best of the Rest and the Brazilian Rio 2016 Exclusives - gives all FIFA Ultimate Team owners a chance to buy the best cards for their favourite player. With FIFA 22, players will enjoy seeing more and more of their favourite players, either by signing up for the Power Players Club

What's new in Fifa 22:

- Career Mode in Ultimate Team - Take the reins of your franchise in FIFA 22. Control your whole team setup with a revamped Pro Draft in Career Mode. Attach players from an expanded player pool, or scan players that have just been released. Select your starting XI in Ultimate Team Ultimate Draft and see how your team progresses in new online leagues.
- Line of Sight analysis enhancements - Football is more than a game of size and strength. It's also a game of skill and technique and letting go of the ball in a line of sight risk, a line of sight challenge. FIFA Visual Intelligence has been completely re-engineered, incorporating a line of sight analysis algorithm, so that the next generation of players, like Cristiano Ronaldo, can be more realistically created. Also, have a look at the line of sight visualiser feature video demo.
- X-Factor skin edit - Have the cheek to personalise your football player with the X-Factor skin edit, allowing your new-look player to suit your style. From first-time signings, or players you've been picking up from the transfer market, all the updates to a fantasy player's look can be applied using in-game editing tools. Complete your new look with custom accessories and select your team's home and away kit in the colour of your choice for FIFA Online ID accounts.
