I went to my doctor on Tuesday to get allergy tested. My appointment was at noon, and it had to be over the lunch rush. They didn't have to see me right away. I was able to leave at 11:15, or about 15 minutes before my appointment time. So I hopped in the car, and off I went. When I got there, my nurse didn't have the allergen blood work done yet. I called her on the phone and had to leave a message. It took her about an hour before I had to call back, and even then I had to leave another message. When she finally answered, I asked if she had the test results for me yet. She said "no, I can't find them." She then couldn't find my file (that was the first part of her message). I had to tell her she had my file, and to please look through it. This is impossible, she said. No way she could have my file. I left my name, phone number, and instructions to search through the file. She hung up on me. I spent the next 30 minutes trying to figure out what was going on, and trying to find my file. I finally decided I'd call back at the beginning of her 570a42141b
