At the end of the day, it's going to come to a decision about the team. The boss needs to make that decision. The last thing I want to do is keep them waiting and waste their time. If that's the decision, that's fine. At the end of the day, it's not my call. I need to respect the decision. I respect the decision. Sometimes you make a mistake. Sometimes you don't make mistakes. The mistake is what the decision is going to be. I'm leaving and that's that. I'm not in a position where I can really answer what's going on."These will not be issued," the police said in an advisory on their website. They advised those responsible to hand themselves in, warning they face charges of obstructing public officers. The new measure is touted as a consequence of Australia's push to adopt cannabis law reform. In December last year the government said it would remove the "schedule 5" classification that underpins almost all drugs in Australia and make the drug legal for those 6d1f23a050
