What's new in NEXT DOOR - An Eternal World:

X - Ch. 06 It was relatively quiet, if say a bit dustier because she changed her normal routine, so she dressed in a light flowy summer maxidress made of a thin nylon material and simple plastic sandals. Today, it was only a casual outfit that seems to work for her. You know, show your tits and that's it. Sliding into her passenger seat, Olivia leaned over to hand Valentine a bag of chips. I'm only human so I told her. Not even for a second as she'd sauntered in the door, doing up her hair, that she remembered that she was no longer a dominant, in this household at least. She would always treat Valentine like the sub she was and never forget it... That knowledge alone made her aura warm a bit, but would go for as long as it was needed to read. As she handed the bag to Valentine, she directed her gaze toward her mate waiting on the floor where they did their work. For Valentine, who knew the cause of her haziness, the bags of chips went toward her stomach and then came the big question. "Olivia, you know that I love you, right?" Oh, she so knew it, you just had to be blind not to see it, even if you ignored every other sensual thing about her. Her heartstone warmed a bit and she nodded against her mate's cheek. "I just want you to know... I know that when we make love you feel safe, that I don't need to be dominant to know I am protected by my master. So, I just want you to know so I know that I can come to you for anything you need in the future and you won't have to worry about me whooping around getting your attention... You just have to ask, okay?" She was looking into Valentine's caring eyes; and Valentine was about to respond with a wholly happy "yes" when Dalton spoke up, cutting through their comfortable moment. "Valentine, I am SO glad we are back to that you now know who your master is and you don't have to worry at all. A dominant certainly deserves his dominance, no doubt, but a true sub always has a safe and loving place with her master's mate. Put her where she wants to be and she'll always come home to you. If she doesn't, well, that's her choice

This package expands that epic adventure with all the goods: all new monsters, more zones and even more customization with three new weapons! The game begins with your introduction to the Etroudeia continent. The abandoned ruins of a once powerful civilization lie ahead. The person who fled the world centuries ago is your guide. He asks you to delve into the mystery of the monster-filled rift to rescue the villagers and stop the rot. Take on the role of a hunter armed with a giant sword and fierce axe to battle the fearsome monsters known as "Cruel Monsters." Explore lush, real-world environments, participate in seamless quests, engage in fierce tag battles and revive fallen monsters. Then, when you're ready to hunt, use the full arsenal of powerful traps and hidden weapons to defeat monstrous beasts. Every day we outgrow our monsters, but there will always be more, much bigger monsters waiting. DIVERSITY AND NOVELTY - Explore 12 extra areas, taking you deeper into the world of Etroudeia. The new areas include the Ruins of Hagus, the Dark Moon, the Forest of Plunder, the Underground Maze, the Rim of the World, and many more! There is a bounty of new monsters for players to collect, including "Cruel" monsters who can only be fought with the weapon that fits their viciousness. More diverse weapons and traps are available including the Stunbat, the Polypopper, the Disturber, and more! FACES YOU TO MAKE YOUR OWN FATE - Hone your hunting skills through online co-op play, or by playing solo with the help of three other hunters. Then step into the role of a survivor.
