Each team is governed by a president, secretary, treasurer, board of directors, and information technology (IT) and analytics team. His job is to draft rules and regulations for the team, decide how they will host competitions, oversee the leagues finances, and make sure the players are treated fairly. The game is broken up into a separate World Leagues, Knockout Leagues, and Invitational Leagues. Its World Leagues where the real moneymaking is done. Its Knockout Leagues where teams will battle it out to determine who will advance to the Invitational Leagues. Contests include national and international leagues as well as invitational tournaments, non-football competitions, exhibition games, friendly competitions, and others. PES 2018 features four types of leagues. UEFA Leagues (single-game matches) are structured competitions where the clubs compete for the league title or for qualification into the next season. FIFA Leagues (single-game matches) match two teams from the same league, for example, the La Liga and the Serie A, while the UEFA League matches two or more teams from different divisions or different countries. Each winner of a UEFA League will automatically qualify for the next season (in a similar manner to the qualification rounds of the FIFA World Cups). The EFL (English Football League) comprise 12 teams from England, and is the second-tier of the English Football League structure. The Super League is the top division, while the Football Conference is the third-tier. The EFL Championship is the second tier, and the Championship is the third tier. The EFL League One is the fourth tier, and the League Two is the fifth tier.
