Beginnings" Season 2 include: transforming the SELU conference into a digitally-driven event for communities to participate in; implementing a safe protocol to allow communities to create safe spaces to share best practices and engage each other in a safe environment, extending the design of the redesigned and innovative COVID-19 Safe Harbour for adoption by the U.S. government and other NGOs, and targeting the 2020 Olympics as a moment to take action. Ideas for Uterine Fibroids Season 2 include: providing a platform for women to discuss their individual and collective experiences with

UFs; increasing funding for UF screening, diagnosis, and treatment; joining forces with other provincial UF initiatives to break the stigma surrounding UFs, create access to UF screening and treatment, and reduce the number of hysterectomies performed on women with UFs; encouraging provincial leadership on UF prevention; and leveraging public-private funding to create a multi-faceted, experiential model of care. With its borders closed, a new epidemic would unfold in an area where there is generally limited access to medical assistance and other services. In April 2020, this organization stepped in to protect one of the towns most affected, Makenga.
