in near future, almost every region all over the world. Artists, your fans, and the music industry all hold power, and the latter two hold far more sway than I had ever imagined. I've had my fair share of battles. It's easy to make a harsh criticism towards someone whose music you enjoy if you're not careful, but I'm a realist at heart. I've had several of my songs used by pop artists in my lifetime, and I've been amazed by some of the results, but I must now admit that overall my career isn't what I wanted it to be. I've had my fair share of struggles and I'll never forget the heartbreak of dealing with illegal downloading and subsequent bootlegging. There's simply no one who's artist is more level-headed and straight-shooting than SMACK! and I must admit, they helped me realize that I'm stronger than I've ever been, and it's only going to get harder as I get older. My future is filled with limitless potential, but I'll never know if that potential is fulfilled if I can't properly care for myself. So to all my fans and artists, I want to say thank you. Thank you for giving my music so much attention. Thank you for taking a chance and for being the part of the music industry that I dreamed of being. I am lucky. I'm also lucky that I am able to work with some incredible artists like Aqualung, Cloud Cult, People
