I flipped over to see my watch; it was already 4 in the morning. I must have slept for a while. I had no idea how to calculate, how much I had slept. I staggered my way into the shower. The pain was not as bad as it was yesterday, still, I was not entirely comfortable with it. "What's the matter? You still afraid?" The Barramundi muttered to himself as he washed the t-shirt over and over again, all the while speaking to me. "Shut up." I shouted at the fish. "You must be cold. The water's too warm, you'll die if you stay in here any longer." The Barramundi continued to mutter to himself. I considered knocking the fish off the edge of the shower. My head was beginning to pound as I stood in the shower, despite the slippers, the Barramundi was biting at the heels of my feet. I was going to have to get my shower elsewhere, in the mean time, I will just stand here. The Barramundi was not going to be happy, of that I was sure. I can't believe I am not able to use a washroom in c6a93da74d
