In the dissertation, we examined the expressive language of the contemporary Serbian author Marko Vidžević. We chose "Kandá" and "Sve crkve su iste" for stylistic purposes. Discussions with colleagues, and it turned out to be especially interesting. But, unfortunately, we found that there is no common point of view on the subject, since each of us sees it in his own way. We realized that our opinions are very different. I cannot help but admit that each of us is right in our own way and we may have different attitudes towards Markovidojkovic and Markovidojkovic. But in fact the problem is not in how we think or feel, but in that we cannot agree. We need to sit down and agree.
