Ocular toxoplasmosis in a Japanese patient: chorioretinal biopsy following allogeneic bone marrow transplantation. Ocular toxoplasmosis in a Japanese patient with aplastic anaemia following bone marrow transplantation from a HLA-matched related donor is reported. There was no prior history of ocular infection. A chorioretinal biopsy following allogeneic bone marrow transplantation failed to demonstrate any evidence of toxoplasma invasion of the choriocapillaris. The corneal stroma was clear. The biopsy specimen was processed for the usual stains,

... Recent Reviews: 5 out of 5 I started playing FIFA 20 a couple of weeks ago... I started playing FIFA 20 a couple of weeks ago and the whole experience has been pretty fun. I'm on the PES side at the moment so I'm not as familiar with the game as I would be with FIFA, but my experience with it thus far has been positive. I love the players, they look sick, and I love the game modes like Ultimate Team etc... I'm not sure if it's just the guys I play with on the local club, but in general I've never been bothered by bad players or terrible players. I've had a few bad experiences on their end which have ruined my enjoyment of the game... For example, the local league we've joined had a couple of games where I turned on the game and the whole team came barreling into the box, ran straight at our goalkeeper, our defenders didn't track them, and the strikers weren't put in the right positions and it was game over. My other experience had this other team where a guy just can't get out of a tackle or just keeps moving in the same position where he's got no chance to get past players and he just keeps going and going and going then at the end he falls over or gets 10 yards out and the defenders just walk up, kick him over and..... You know... Bad players. So that aside... All and all as a whole I love FIFA and like PES. I haven't played since FIFA 15 so there is a lot to look forward to this year. I'm definitely looking forward to the EA FIFA event :D Disappointed It's not real football... ... but I'm not exactly surprised. FIFA has NEVER been a decent football game. It's always been a fun way to spend 5 minutes playing through a match, but that's where the fun stops. They started with the worst idea of any football game ever, passing... Would not recommend. I actually had a bit more hope for this one, seeing as how I believe that EA are working towards a new direction, something they should definitely remain loyal to. They made a bold, somewhat risky move with the release of PES 2018, and thankfully seem to be listening to their customers - which is definitely a step in the right direction. However, FUT is a different animal, completely diverging from the past. This game is far more about collecting
