Annette Pizzitola and her son, Christopher, 3, have traveled to Europe, Australia, Canada and the United States, as well as the state of Maine, to check out fly fishing, horseback riding, dance classes and other activities with The Children's Museum of Maine. (COURTESY) Bangor woman back in Maine for first full season of traveling with children BANGOR, Maine — Isabelle Mes-Marines found out weeks ago that she was going to go to a retirement conference with her husband on the East Coast. So she and her husband, Christian Mes-Marines, decided to go to New York to see their son, Francis, who was in high school. They also went to visit their friends in Boston. The trip came at a good time because it was about a year and a half since Isabelle had last been home in Maine. Last year, she traveled to Europe, Australia and Canada with her son Christopher, then 3. This year, the Pizzitola family is on the road again. Annette Pizzitola, 39, a clinical psychologist, and her son, Christopher, 3, of Madison, recently visited a variety of tourist attractions, including the American Museum of Natural History in New York City and the Maine state fair. They spent July 4 visiting their son's school in Vermont before traveling on to Bangor. They returned home last week after visiting the coast, Down East and Acadia National Park. "These children are always on the go," Annette Pizzitola said. "This is one of the first times I feel like I need to slow down. I'm having a real culture shock back in Maine." After his third birthday in May, Christopher was diagnosed with ADHD. Annette Pizzitola works with a psychologist to work with Christopher. "It's such a big part of his life," Annette Pizzitola said. She said she is enjoying getting to know Christopher better and seeing how his skills are changing. She 79a2804d6b
